

Can tenants run a business from their home?

A tenant's home is in a residential area and is let to them as living accommodation and so tenants must not run a business from it unless they have permission in writing from Waverley Housing. Tenants should request permission from their designated Housing Officer.