

GEORGE YOUNG

George was appointed to the Board as a Community Director in September 2013 and is currently Chair of our Audit and Internal Control Committee (AICC) since November 2014 and Vice Chair of the Board since September 2016. George has a degree in Economics and is a Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland. He retired as Senior Partner of a firm of Chartered Accountants in 2008 but has remained with the firm in a consultancy capacity advising organisations in the care sector and charities. George has over the years been involved in a number of community organisations in the Kelso area.