

Best Use

Applicants are considered to meet Best Use by having a confirmed need (e.g. from your G.P.) for any adaptations or amenities within a property, or if the property is ground floor by having a confirmed medical need for ground floor accommodation, or simply by making use of all bedrooms within the property for their family composition.